Countless Configurations

Chemistry incorporates the “magic angle of conversation” in every bench and every configuration. It can be used to stimulate social interaction or provide private refuge in a public space.

Chemistry 67002 / 67001
Configuration 02: 2-seater benches, upholstered in Selva Paradise, steel bases in Matte Chrome.

Simple elegance describes the components, which appear to float above the supporting legs of the base, giving an airy feel to a space even when a dense configuration is applied.
